

Hello,

Please do not weaken New Jersey's consumer protection laws by allowing telemarketers to contact people who have put themselves on a "do not call" list.

Individual citizens' personal rights are just as important, if not more so, than a company's "rights" to intrude on citizen's stated desires for privacy.

Thank you!